Dedication

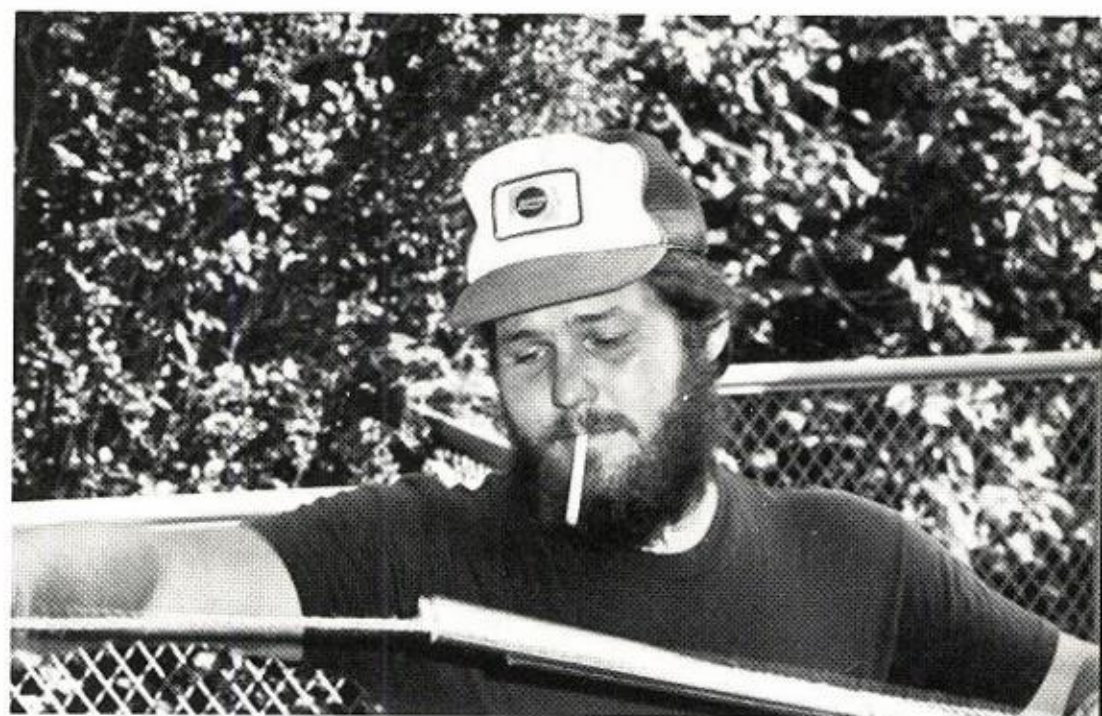

Mrs. Jean Wittich

The 1980 Penn Alma is dedicated to the memory of Jean E. Wittich. Mrs. Wittich gave this school and its community many years of unselfish service. Both in the school office and as an actively involved citizen, she was an integral part of our lives. She will always be remembered with warmth and affection by all of us since our stay here was immeasurably enriched by her presence.

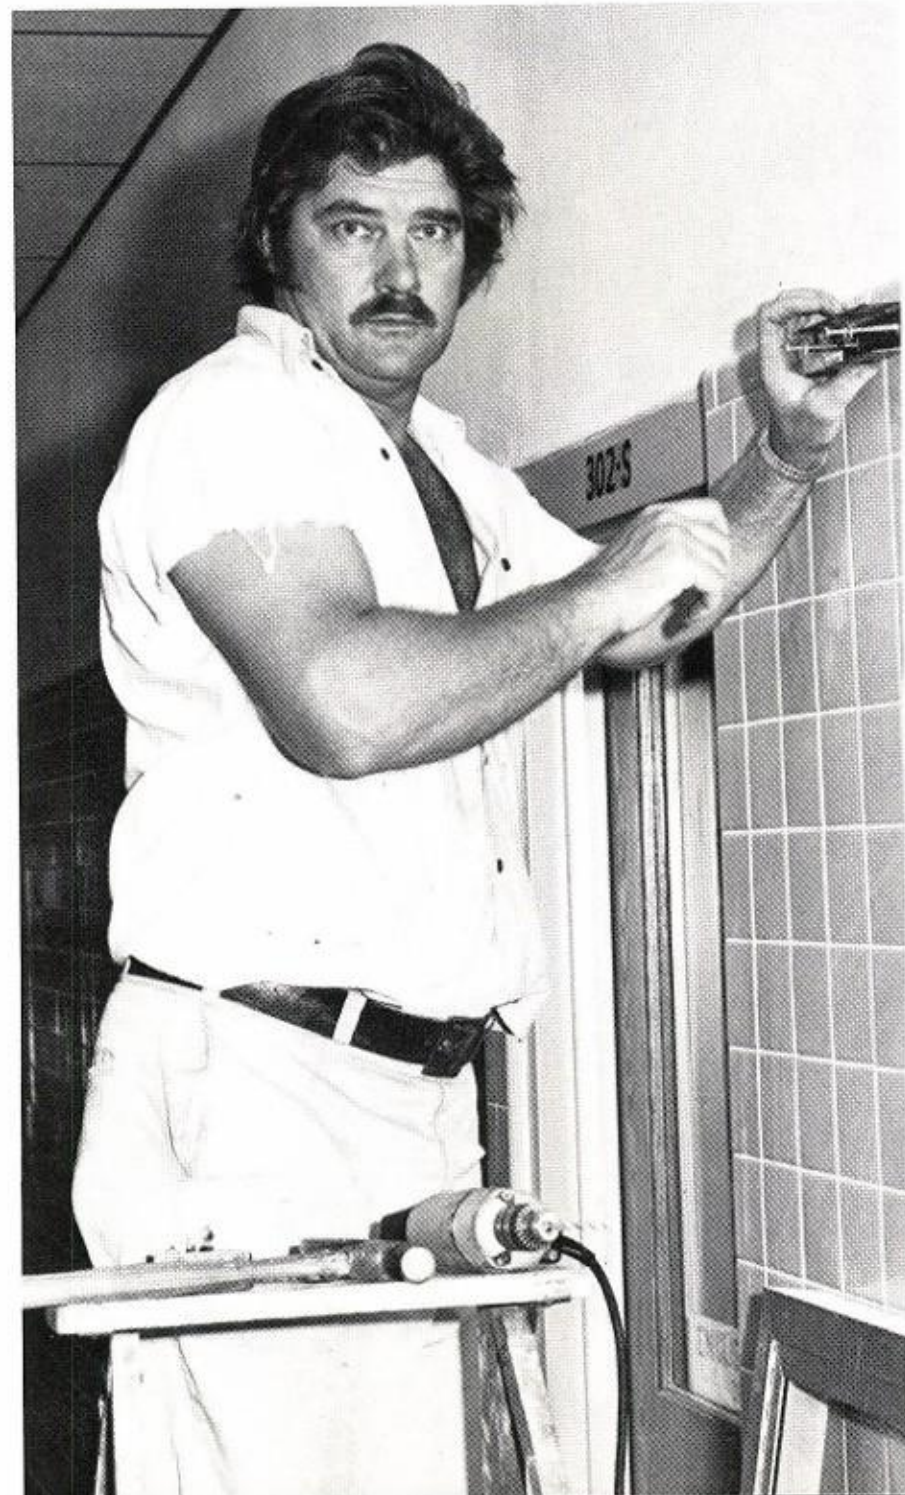

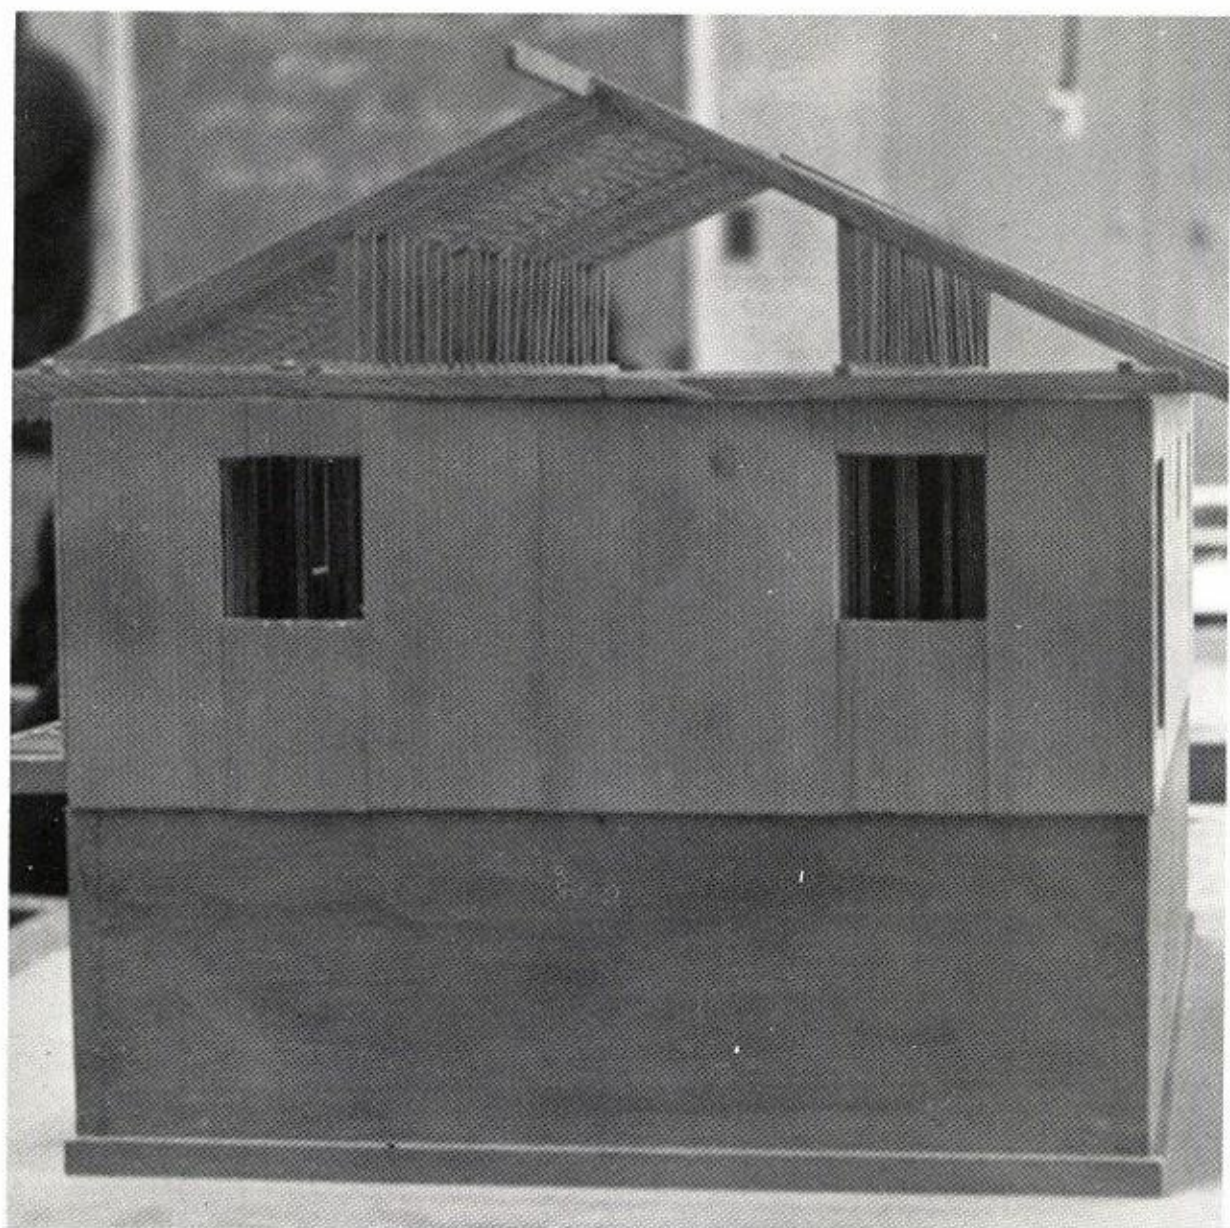

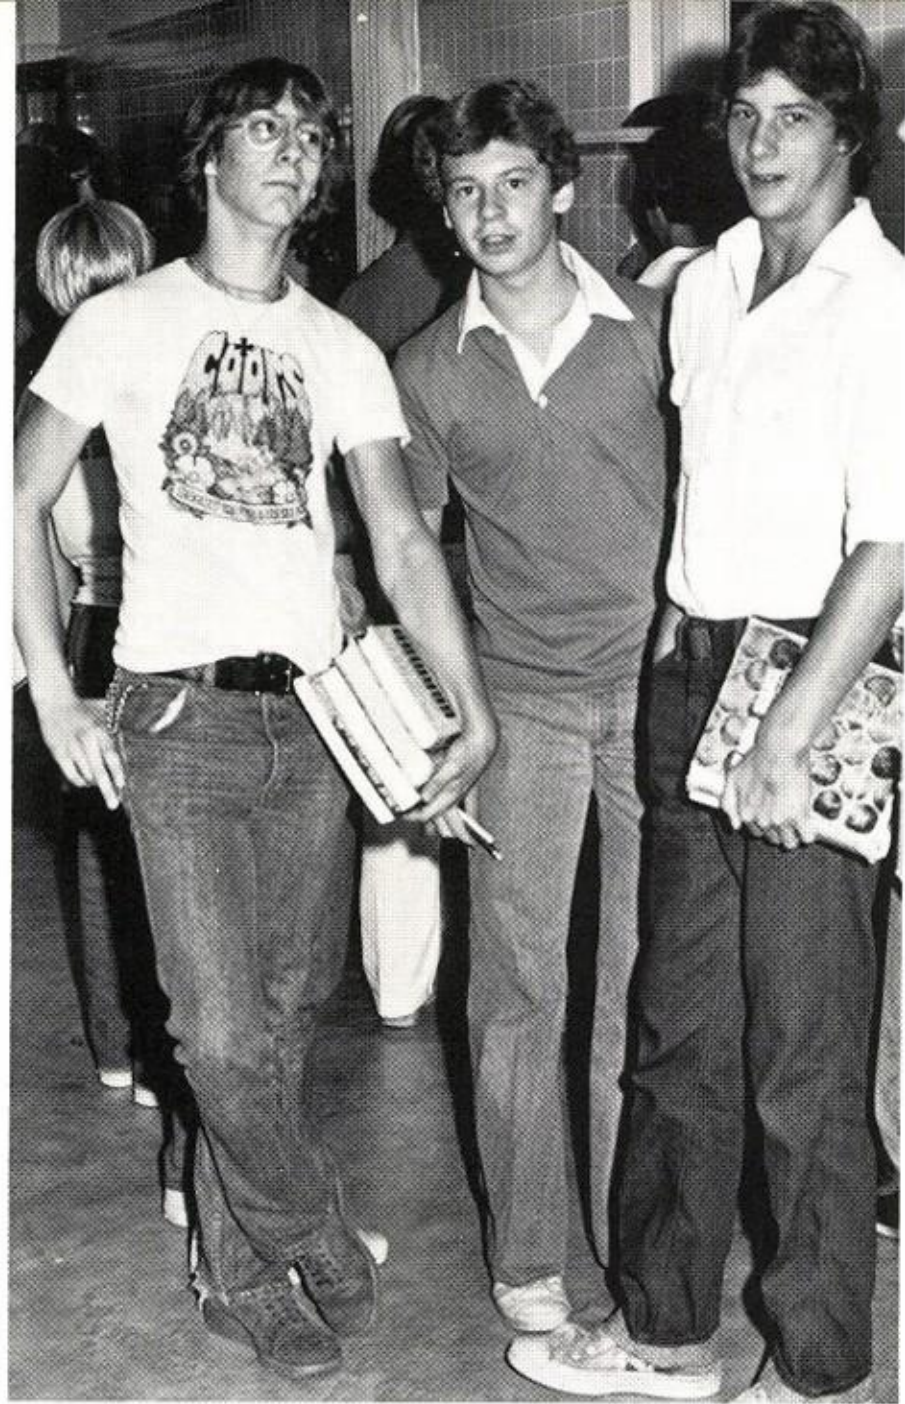

The whole difference between construction and creation is exactly this: that a thing constructed can only be loved after it is constructed; but a thing created is loved before it exists.

The reasonable man adapts himself to the world; the unreasonable one persists in trying to adapt the world to himself. Therefore, all progress depends on the unreasonable man.

George Bernard Shaw

Teachers Are People

It is sometimes difficult for a student, when seated in a classroom, to think of a teacher as being anything other than a teacher. But the person holding that grade book or writing on the blackboard does have a life outside of school.

Teachers do not wait with baited breath for Monday mornings nor do they feel disappointment on "snow days." If anything, they look forward to "TGIF," Thank God it's Friday, with more zeal than the students.

They do not enjoy grading papers, dealing out "F's" or giving students a hard time. Teachers want, very much, for their students to succeed, to do well. Teachers do the best they know how and it's time we appreciated their efforts.

The imaginative artwork exhibited at this year's Open House received much comment. It was evident that for a small school, Mt. Penn possesses a great deal of talent.

Along with the new Home Economics teacher, Miss Weaver, the studies have been geared more academically.

The chorus and band concerts, held in December and May, brought much acclaim to our school.

I HAD A DREAM . . .

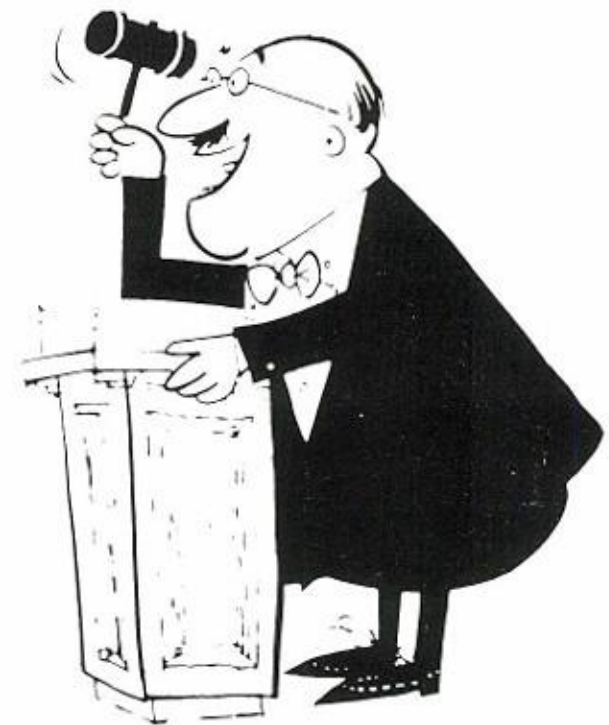

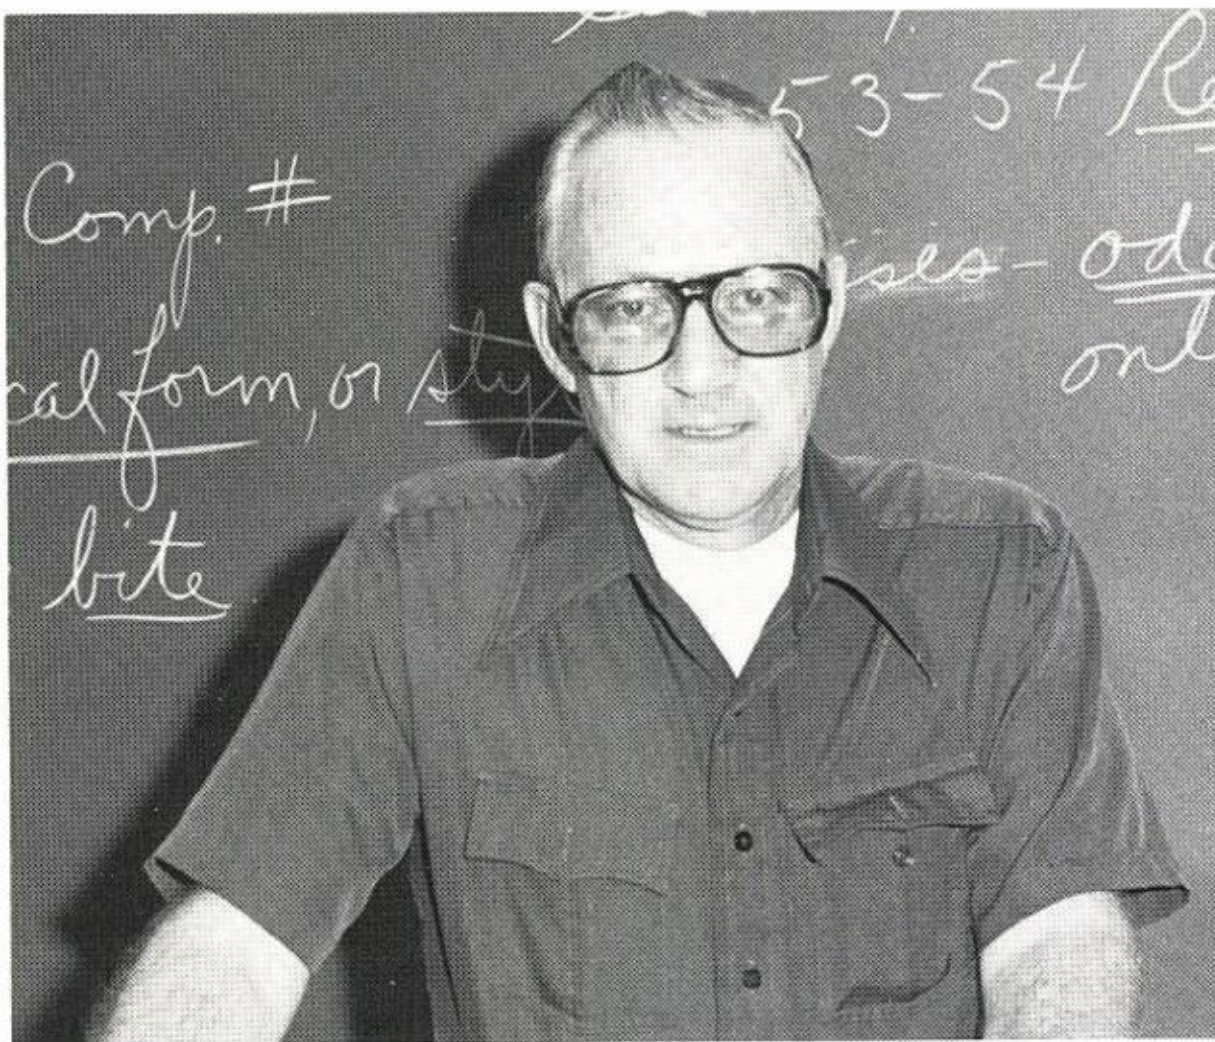

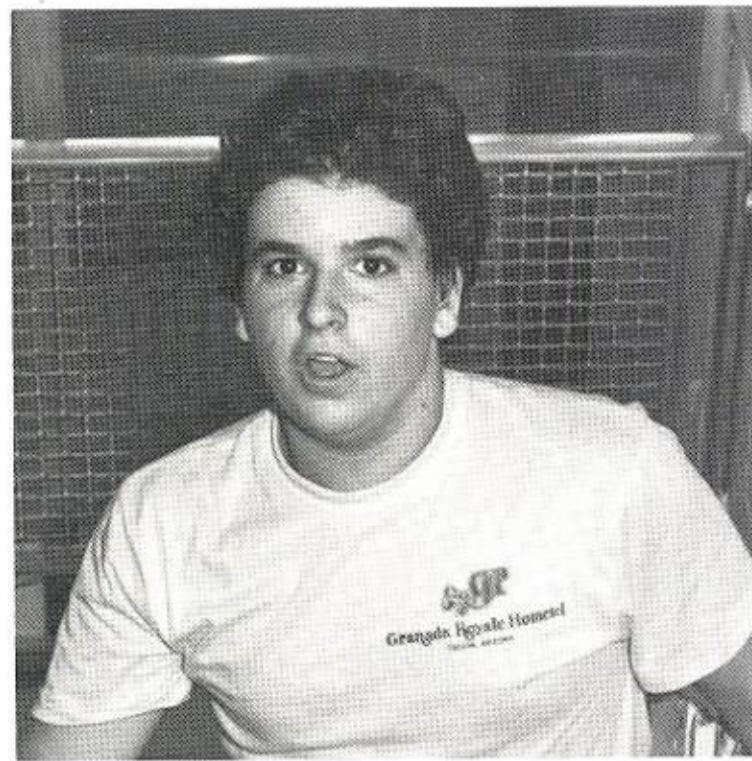

A DAY IN THE LIFE

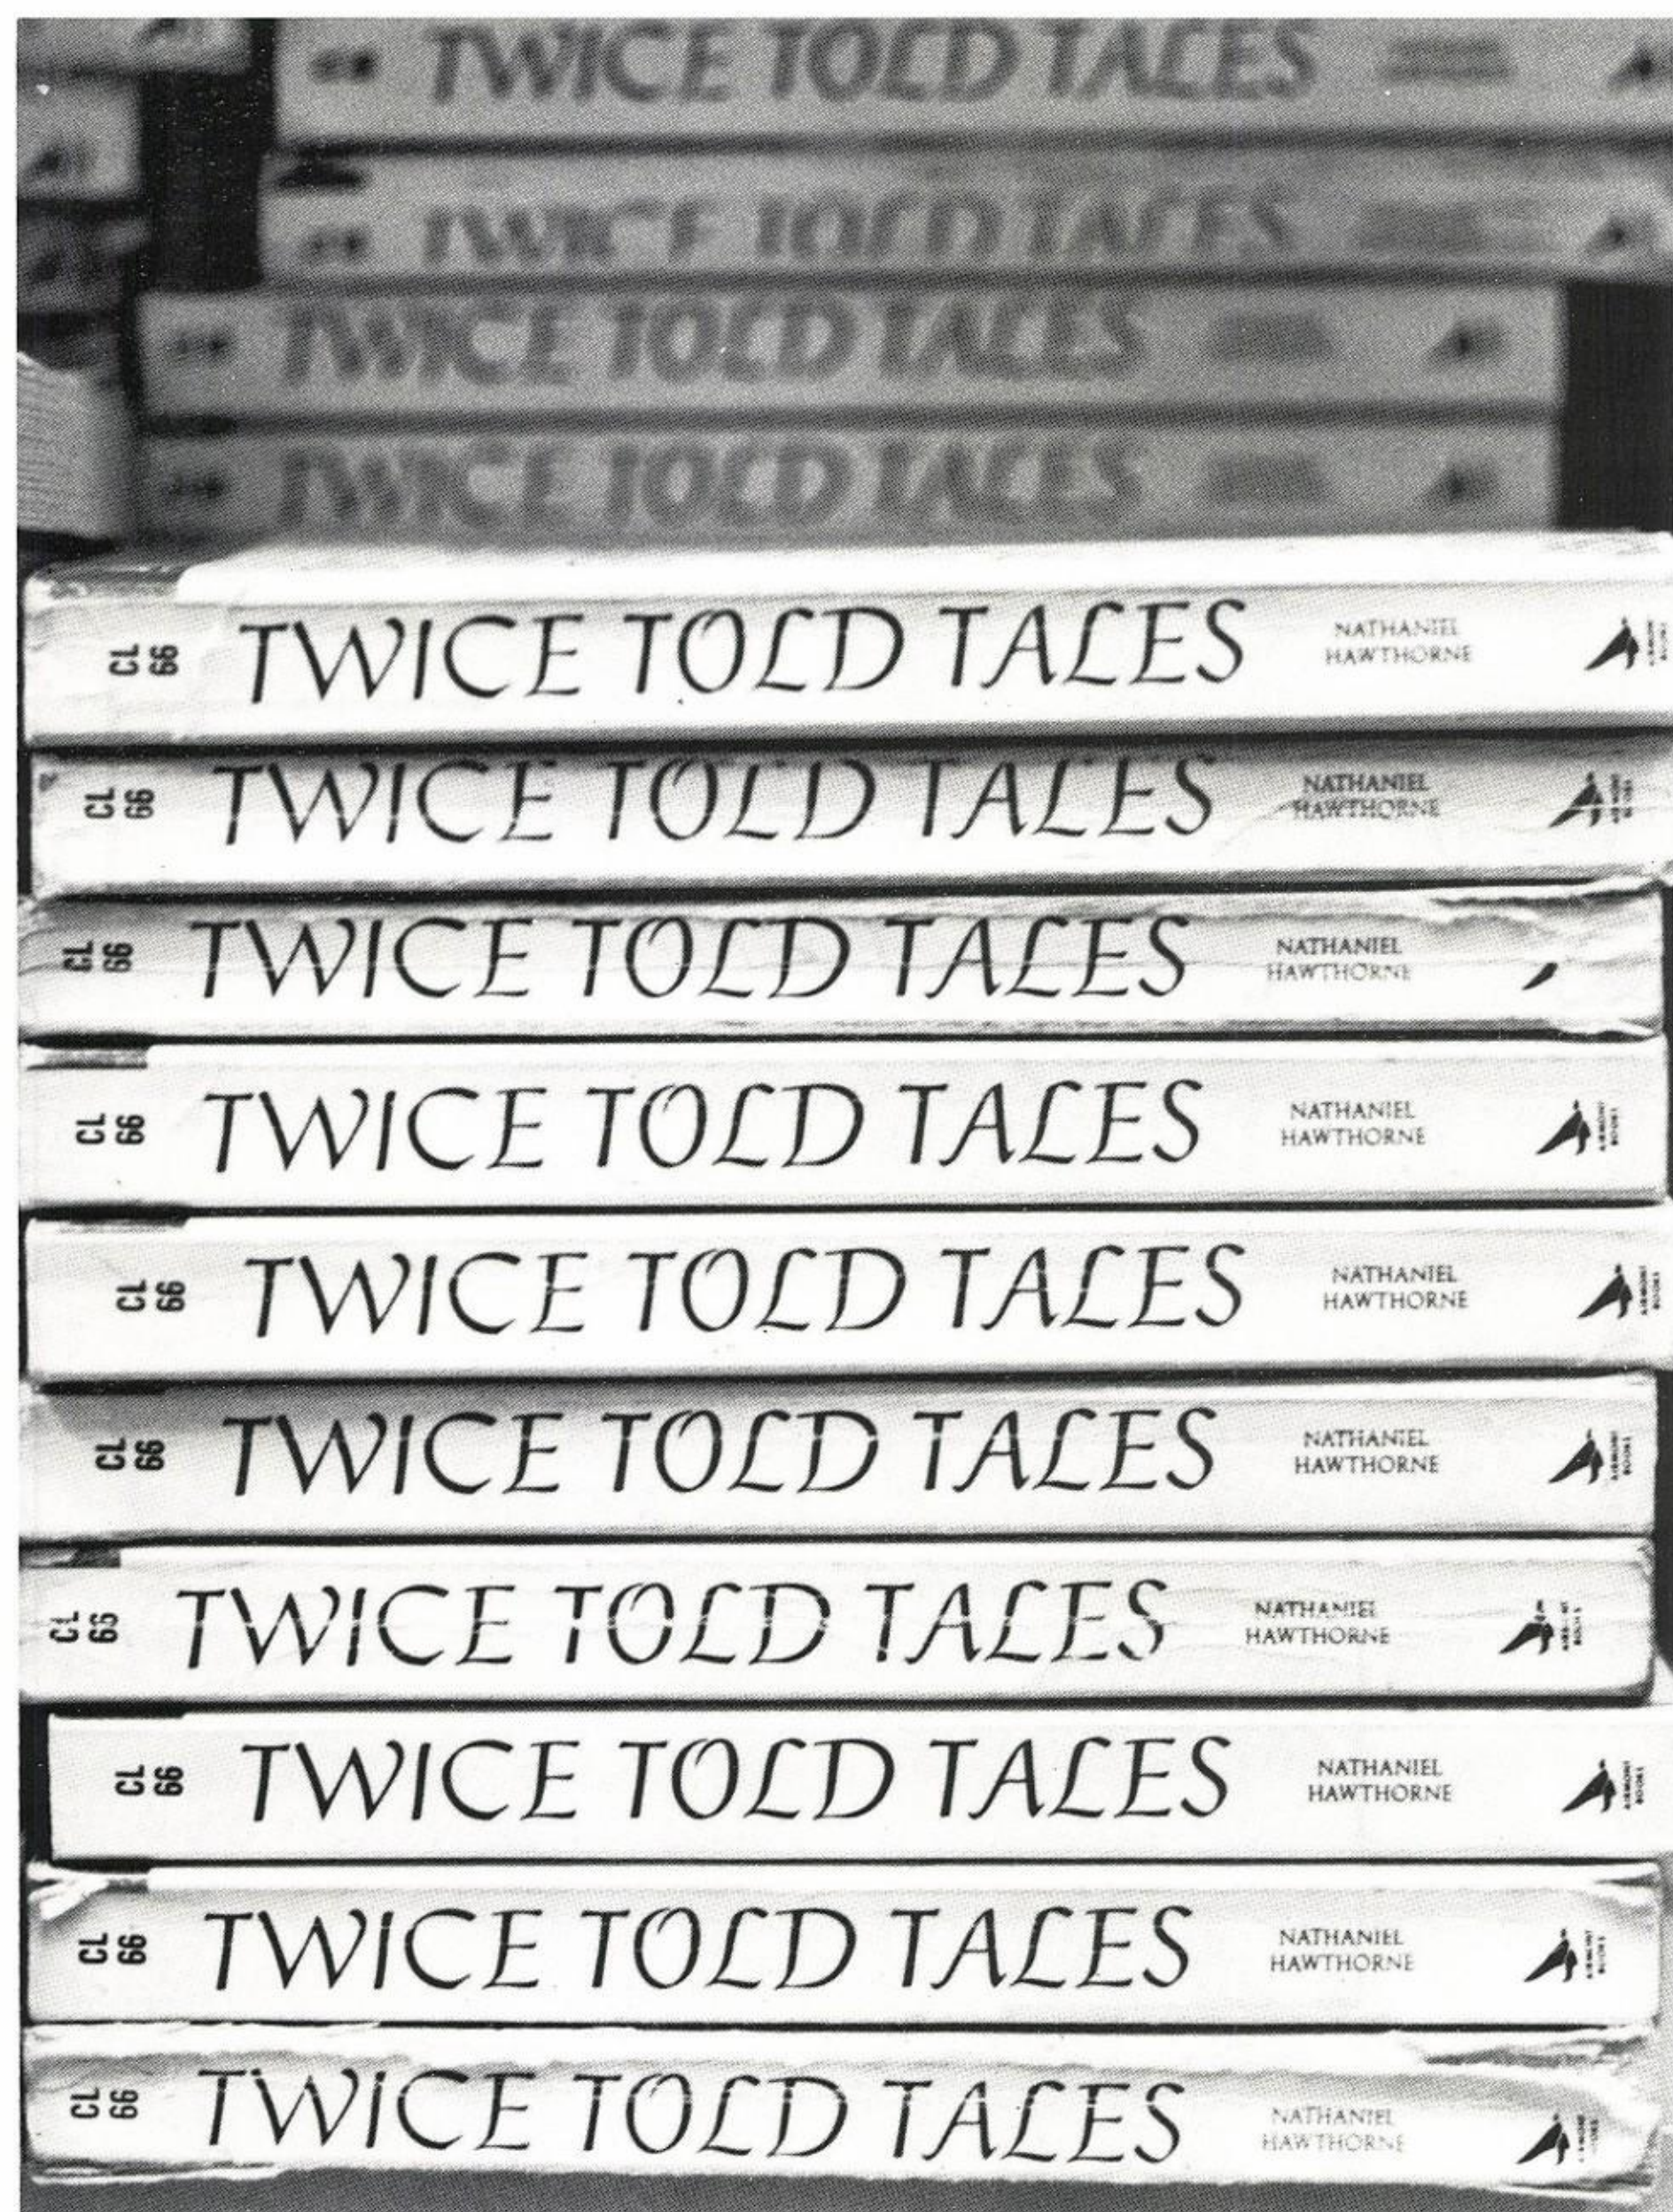

A wide variety of business courses was offered this year. They ranged from Mr. Messner's Accounting, Consumer Economics, and Business Math to Mrs. Barnett's shorthand and typing classes. The office-type work area helps students gain insights into the real business world. As in the past, students have obtained skills which helped them get better jobs after graduation.

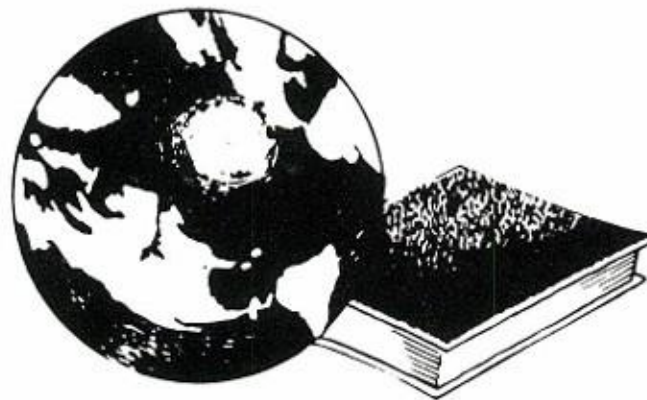

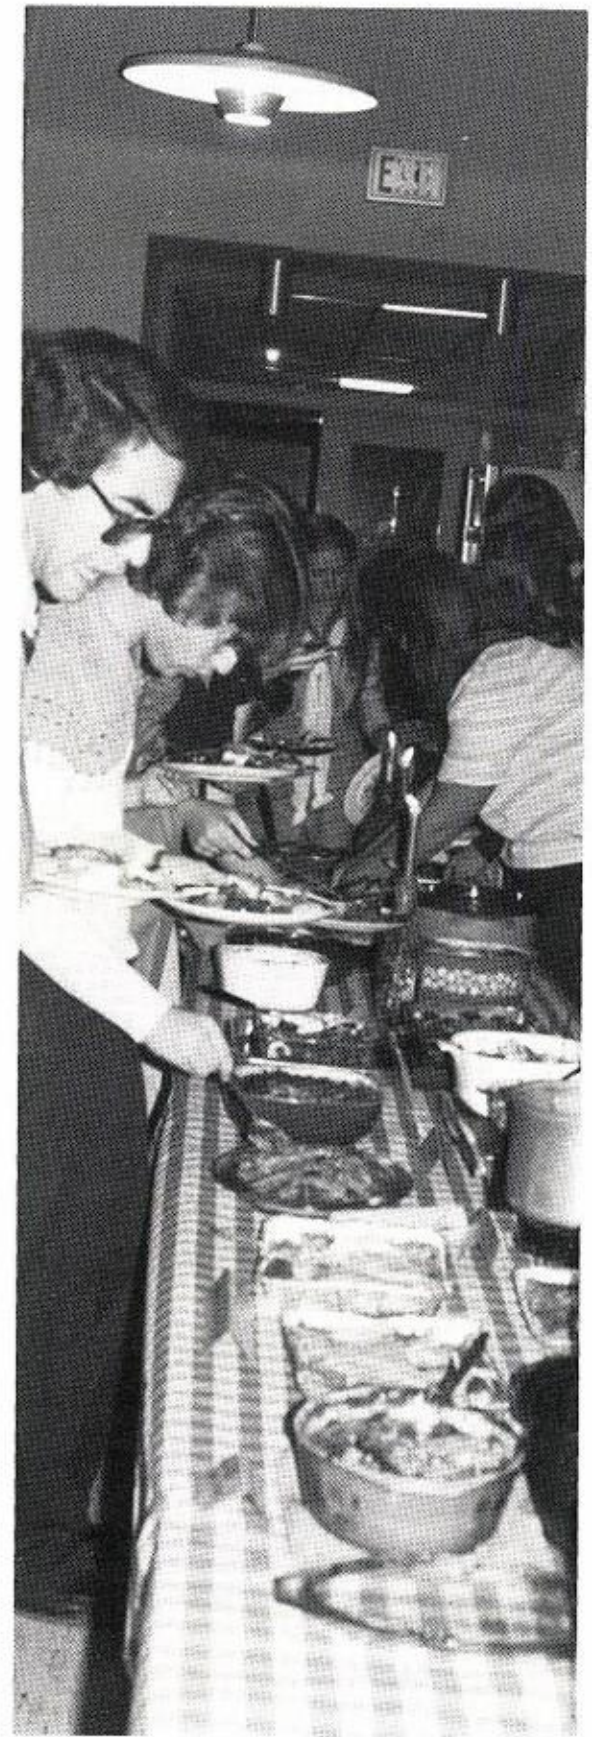

Fundamentals were once again stressed in this year's English classes. The 9th grade classes spent the entire year studying grammar and vocabulary. The 10th, 11th, and 12th grade classes studied literature in addition to grammar and vocabulary. Although some significant "mini-courses" were dropped, the Department feels the changes are for the better. One addition is the 9th grade reading course taught by Mr. Segro.

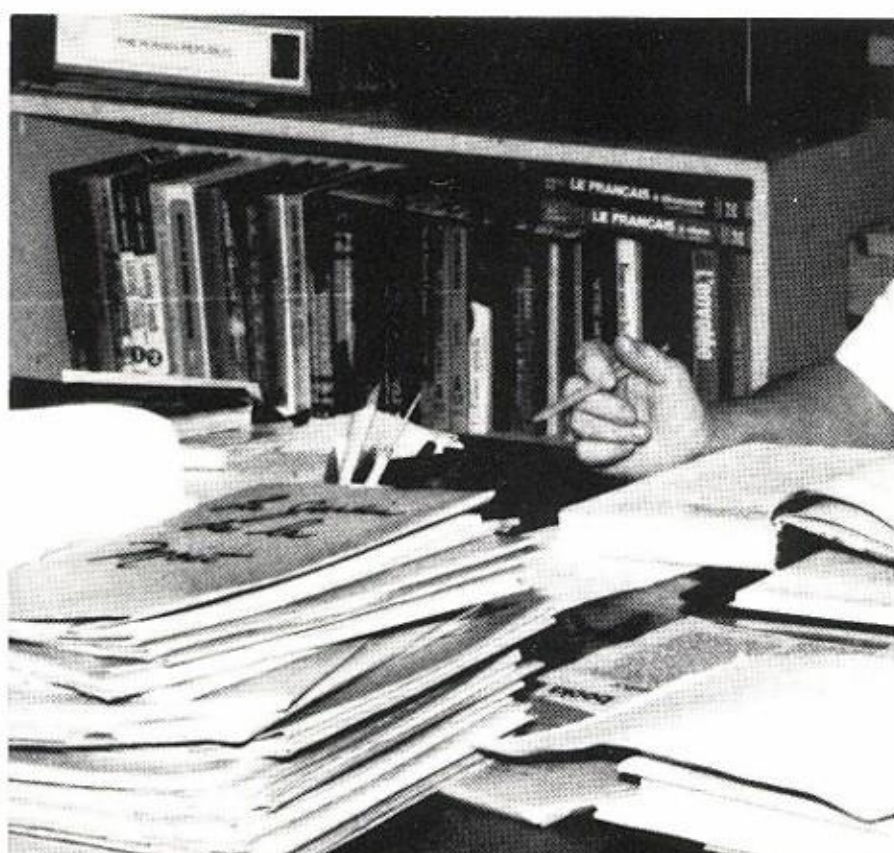

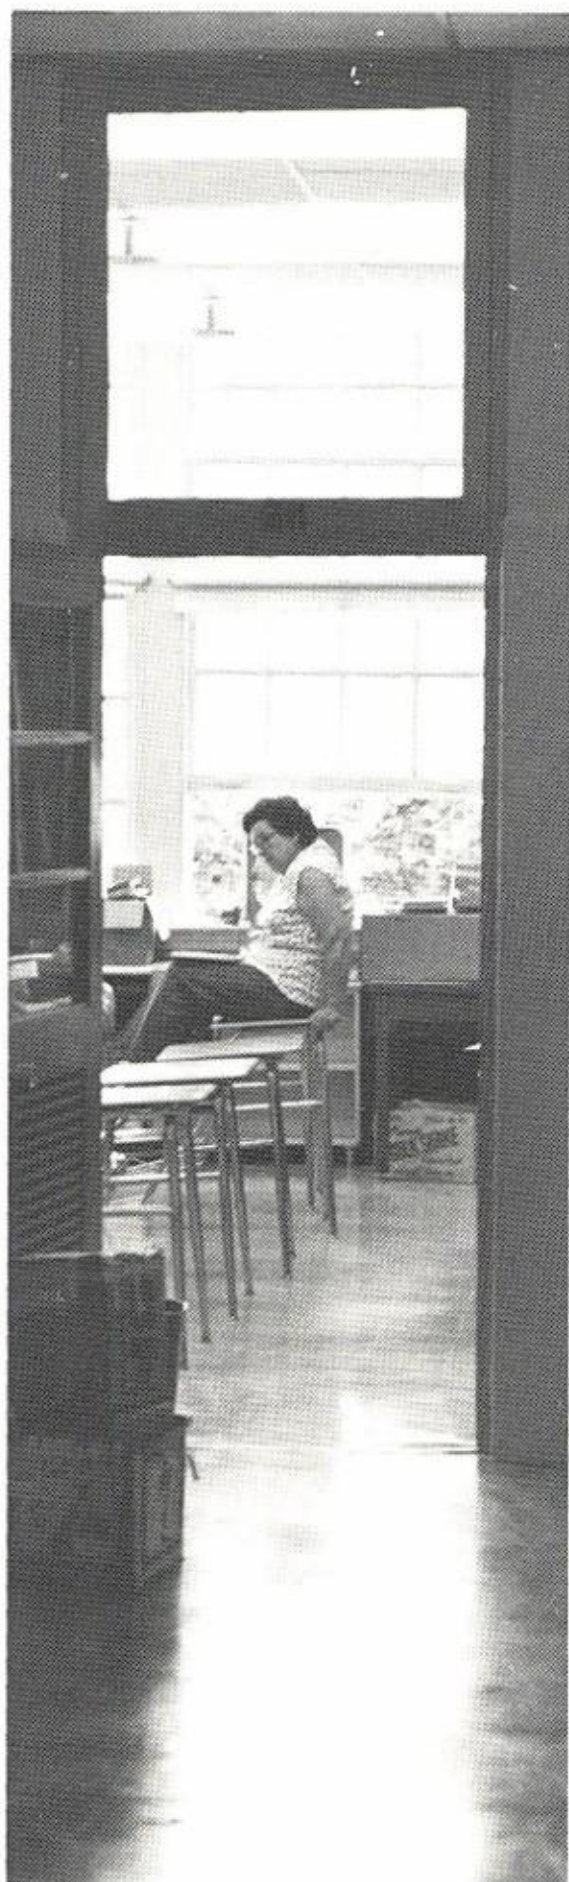

LET IT BE

OVER THE HILLS AND FAR AWAY

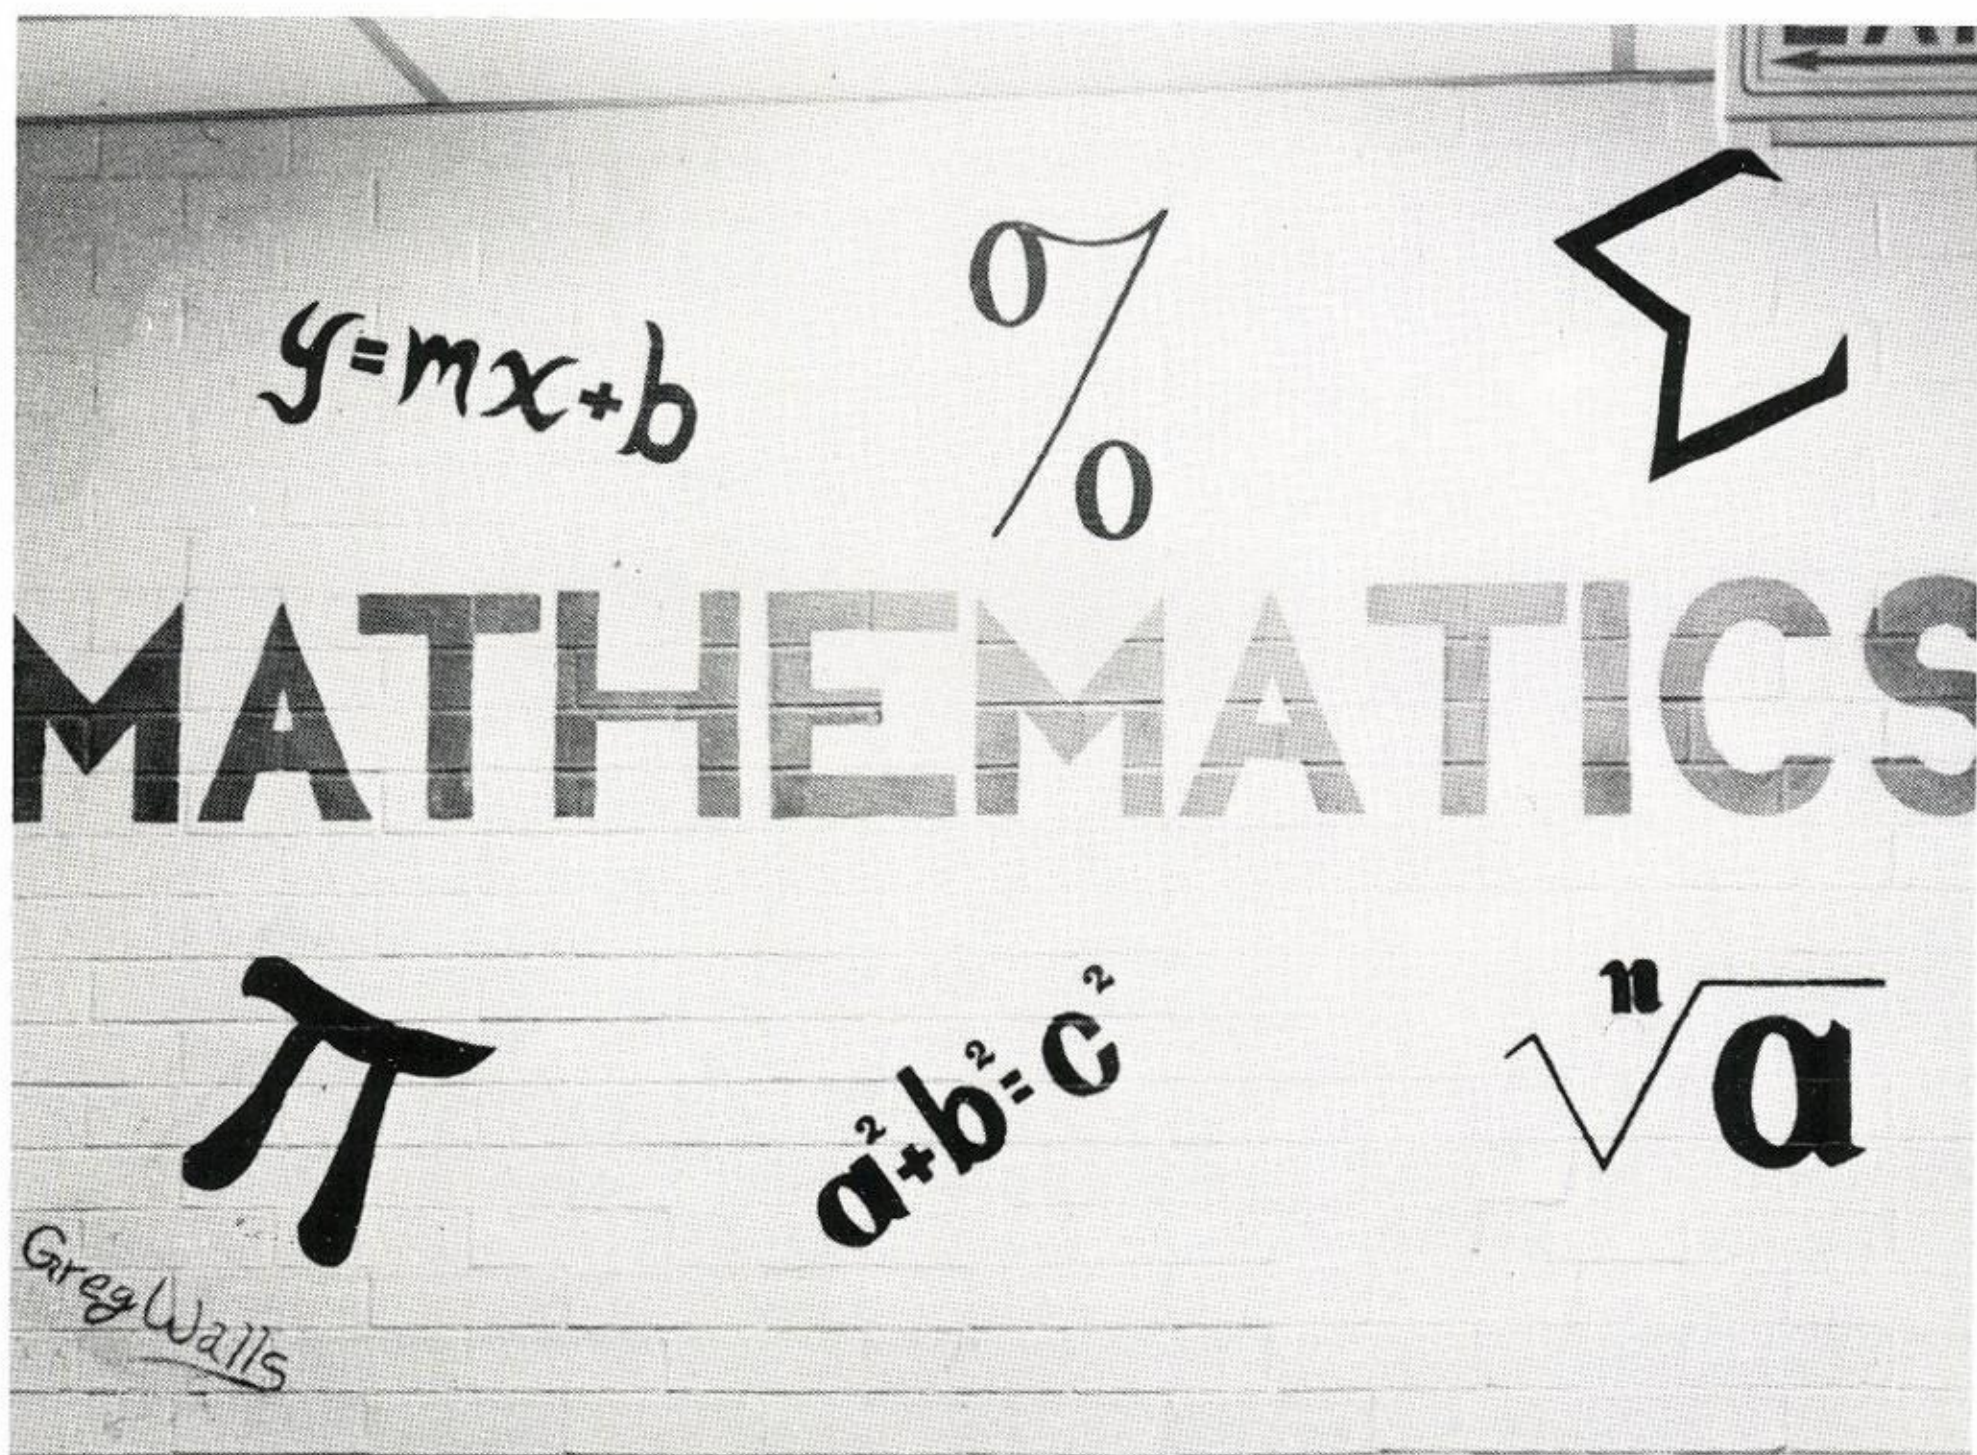

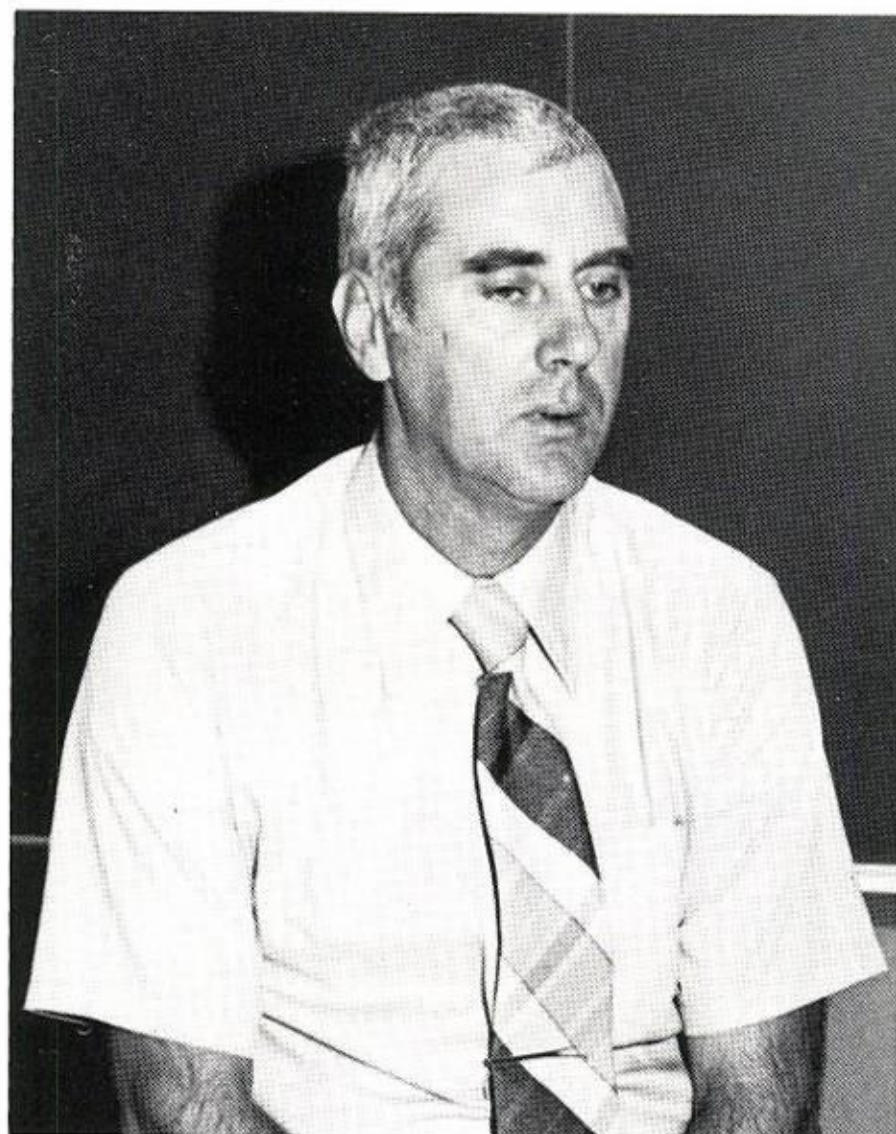

The Foreign Language Department was expanded this year with the arrival of Mrs. Guido. Now students can choose to study German, French, and Spanish. The annual dinners were held and once again a success. Some students took advantage of the trips to Germany and France. They all felt the trip greatly benefitted them.

The increased number of students continuing their language studies is encouraging to all the teachers.

The excellence of our Math Department was displayed again this year when it was discovered that our students had the highest average math scores on the Scholastic Achievement Tests.

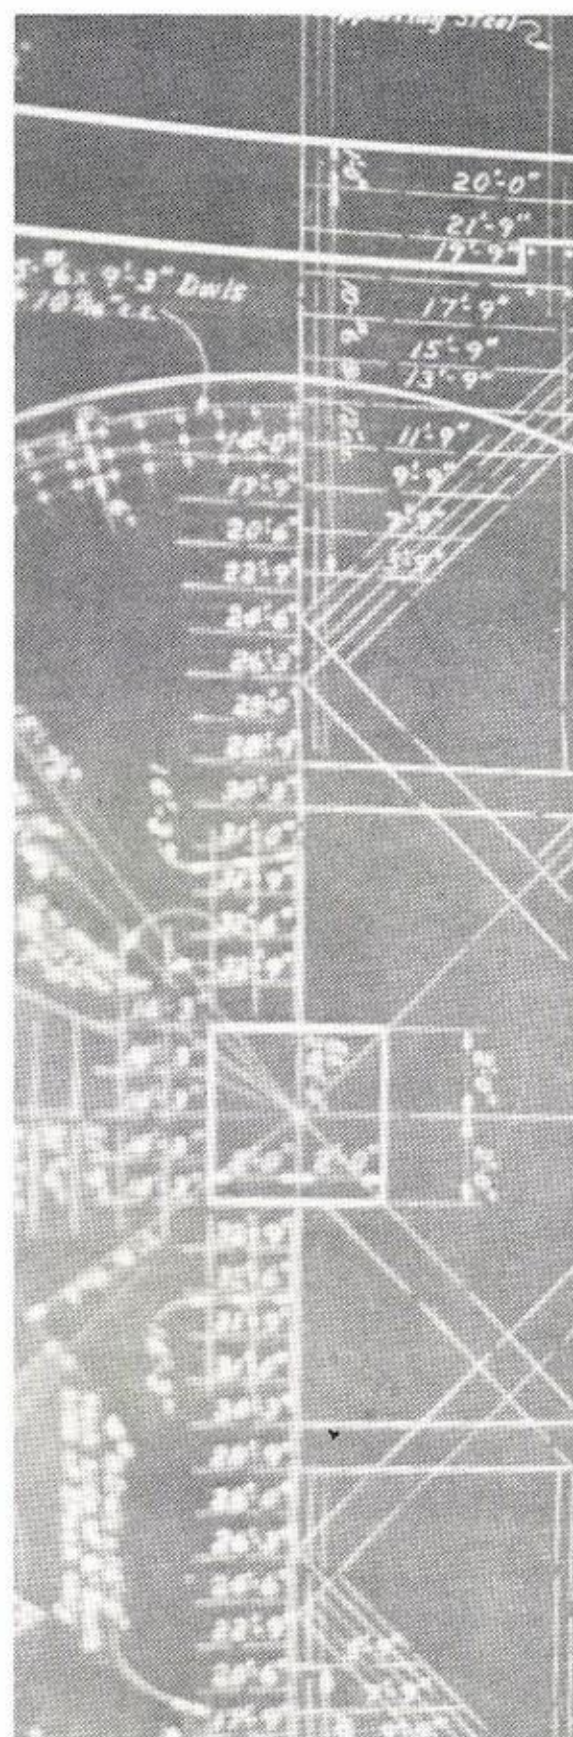

Dr. Hill, of Albright College, taught the second semester of Calculus to ten seniors. The curriculum is one which begins in the Middle School and continues in more depth at the High School. Although this is a long and tedious process, it has given our students a big head start in college.

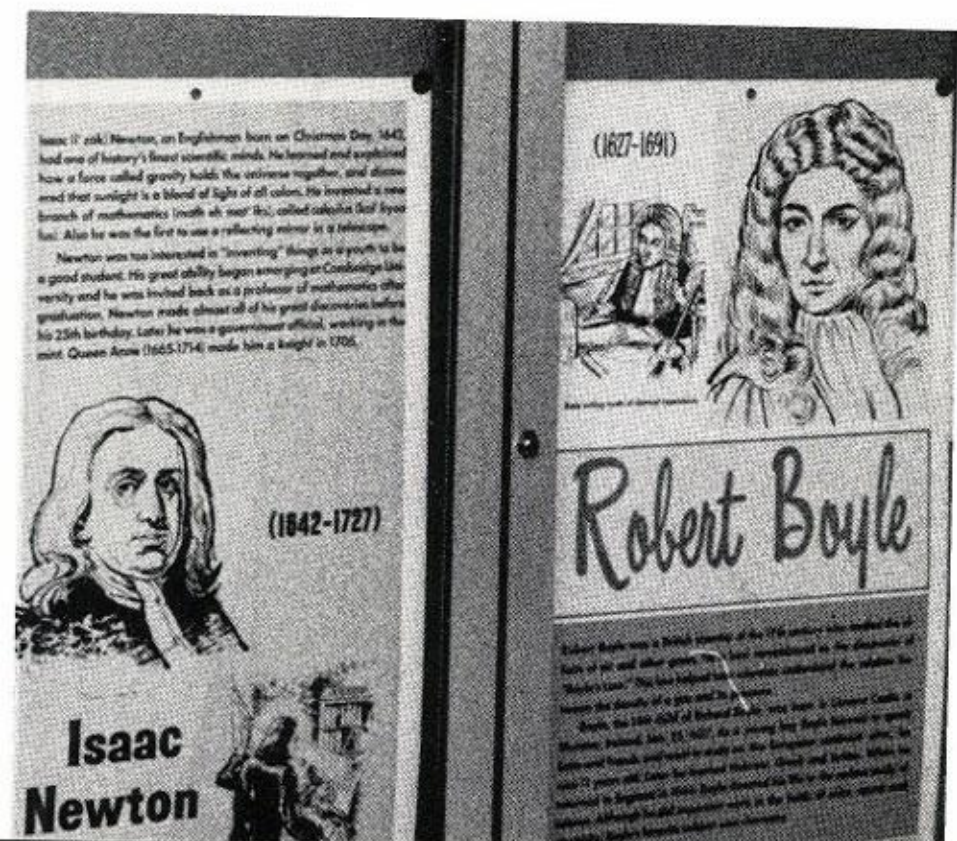

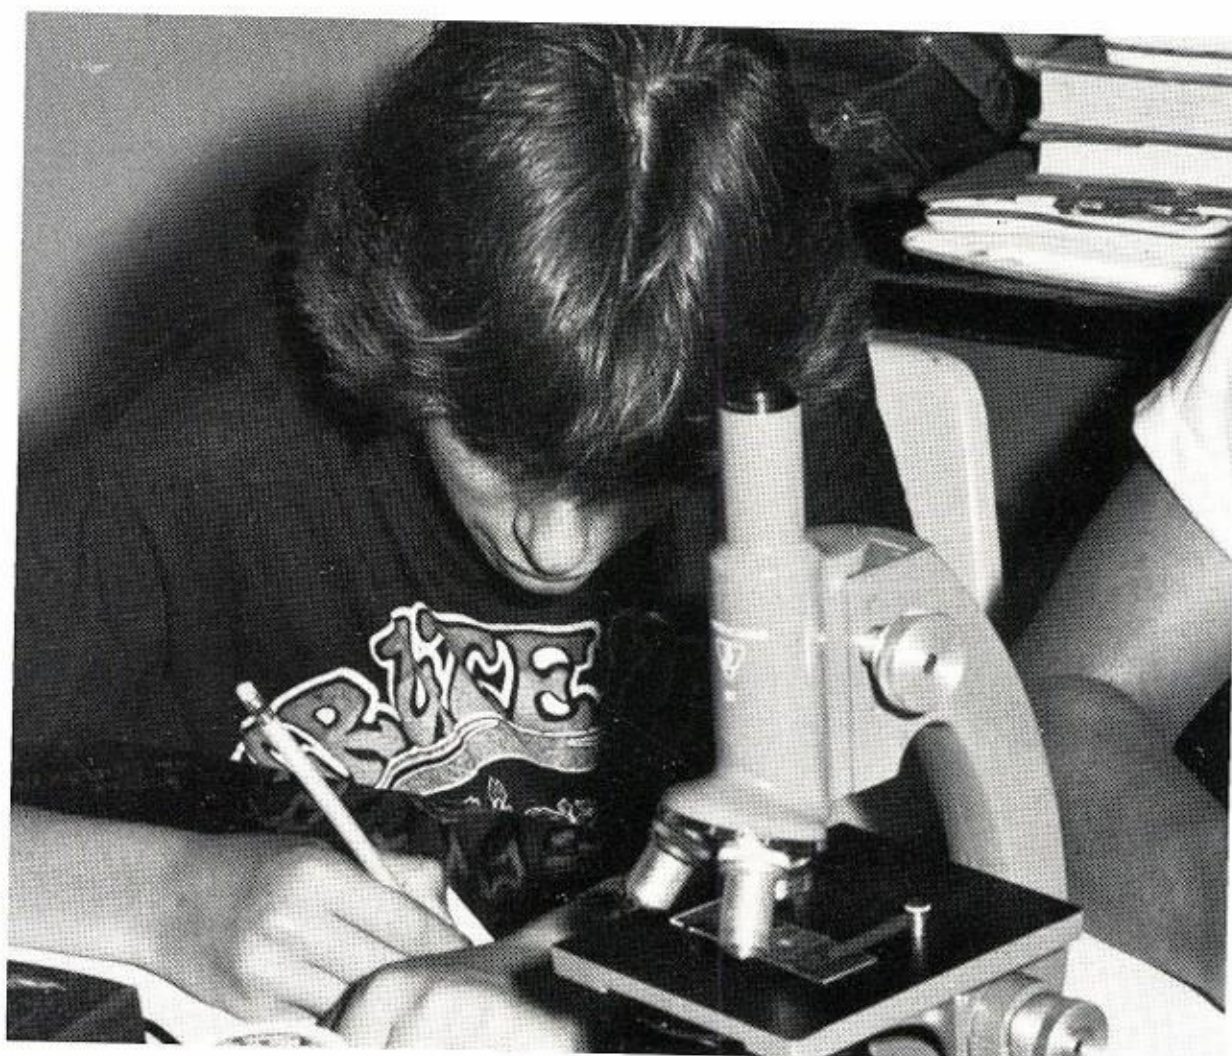

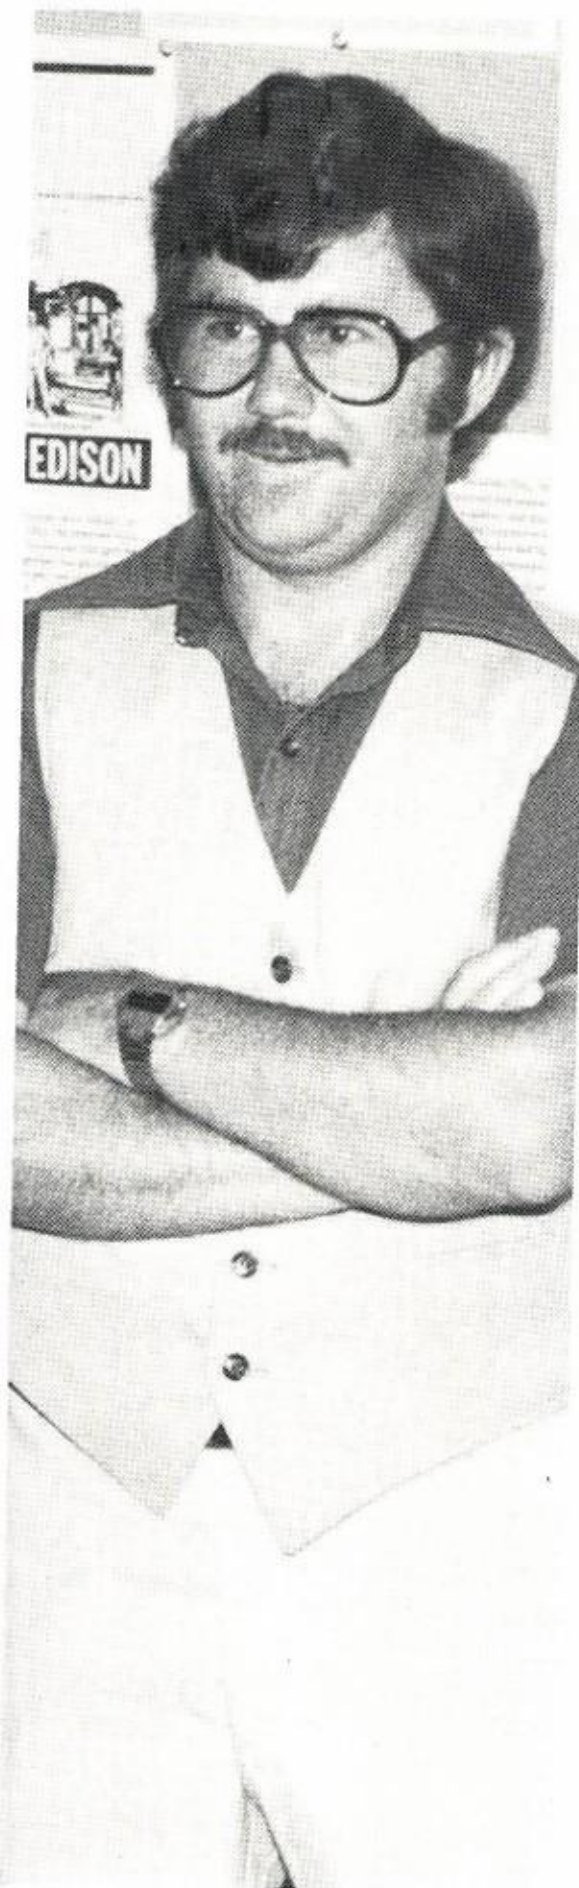

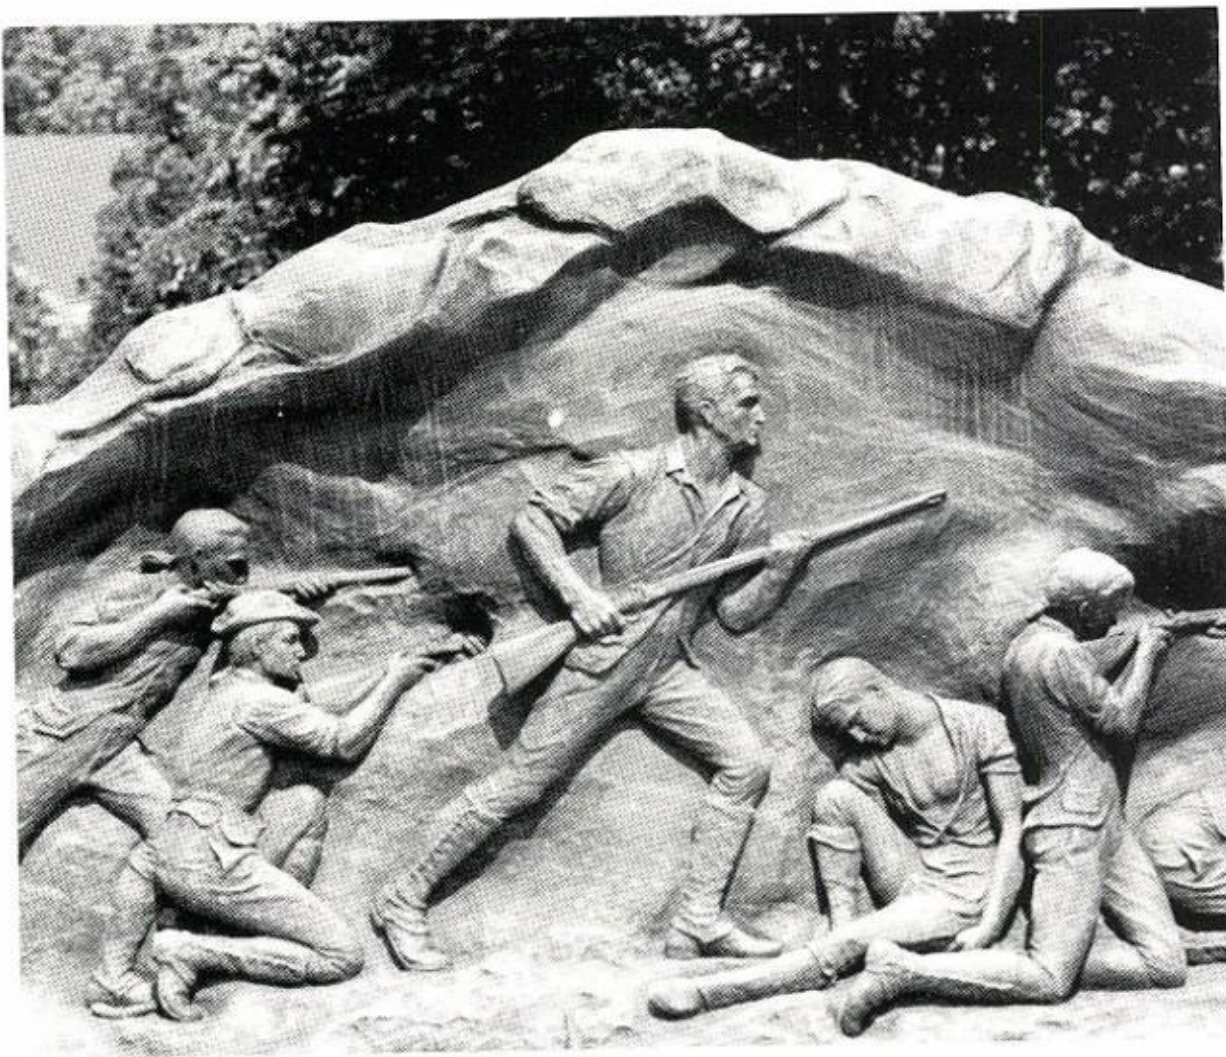

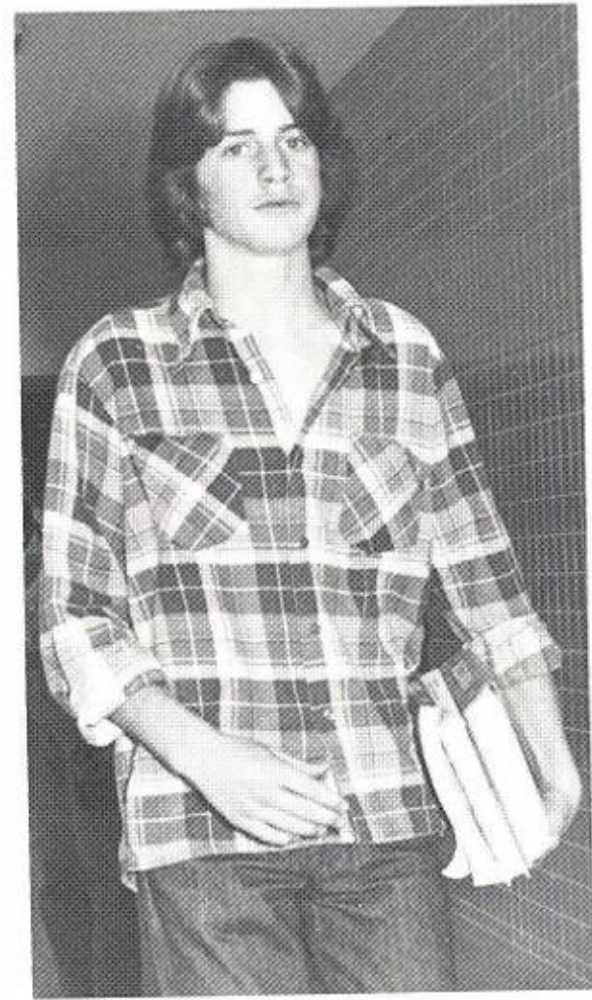

LONG AND WINDING ROAD

A black and white photograph showing two hands holding thin, light-colored sticks, possibly cigarettes or pens, against a dark, blurred background. The hands are positioned in the foreground, with the sticks held between the fingers. The background is out of focus, showing indistinct shapes and textures.

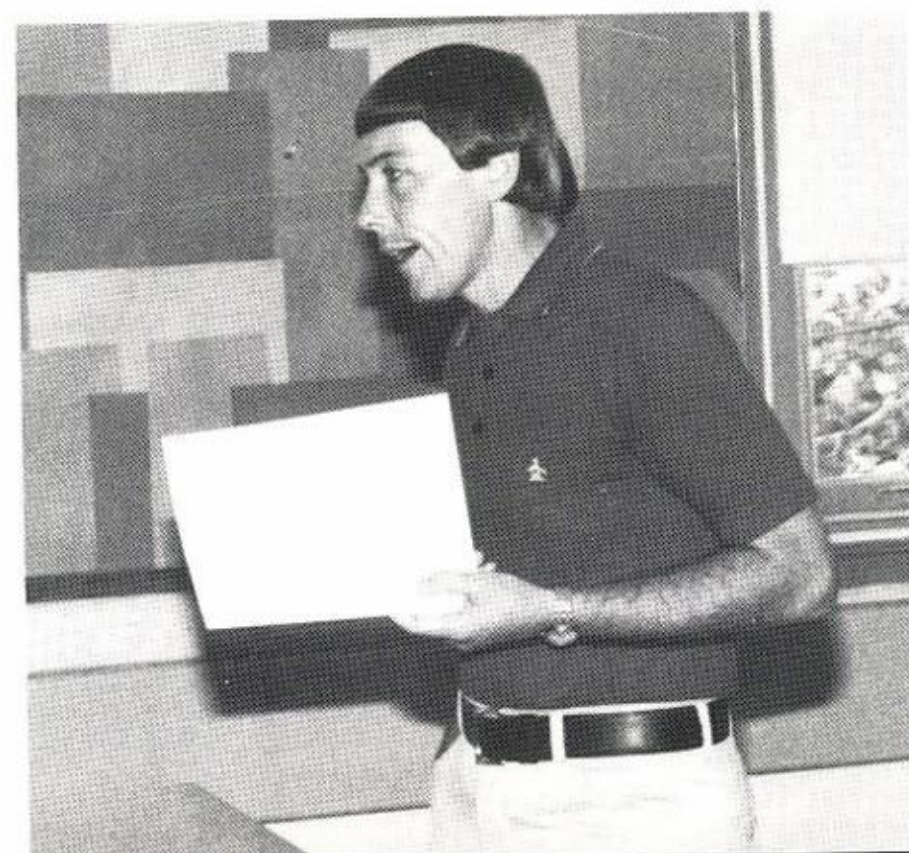

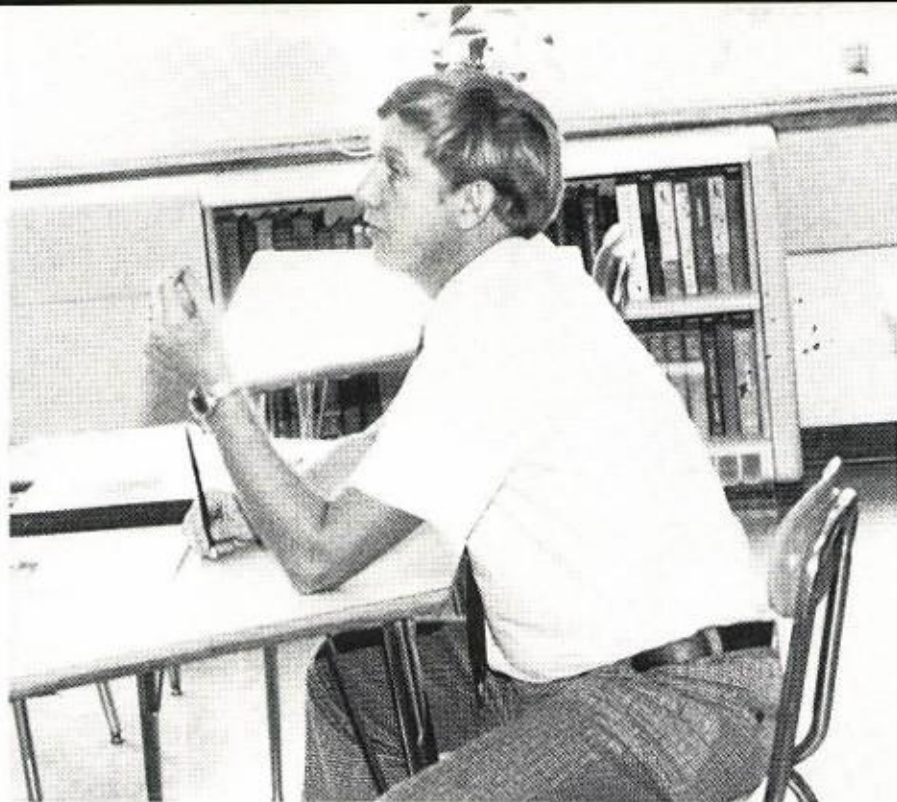

A new look was given to our Science Department as Mr. Markley replaced Miss Luckenbach, who was on a sabbatical leave. The Nuclear Science class took several trips to monitor levels of radioactivity and saw an actual reactor at Penn State. The advanced Biology classes have taken several trips to strengthen the understanding of their relationship with the environment. Mr. Ranck's chemistry classes have emphasized labs to authenticate what was being taught.

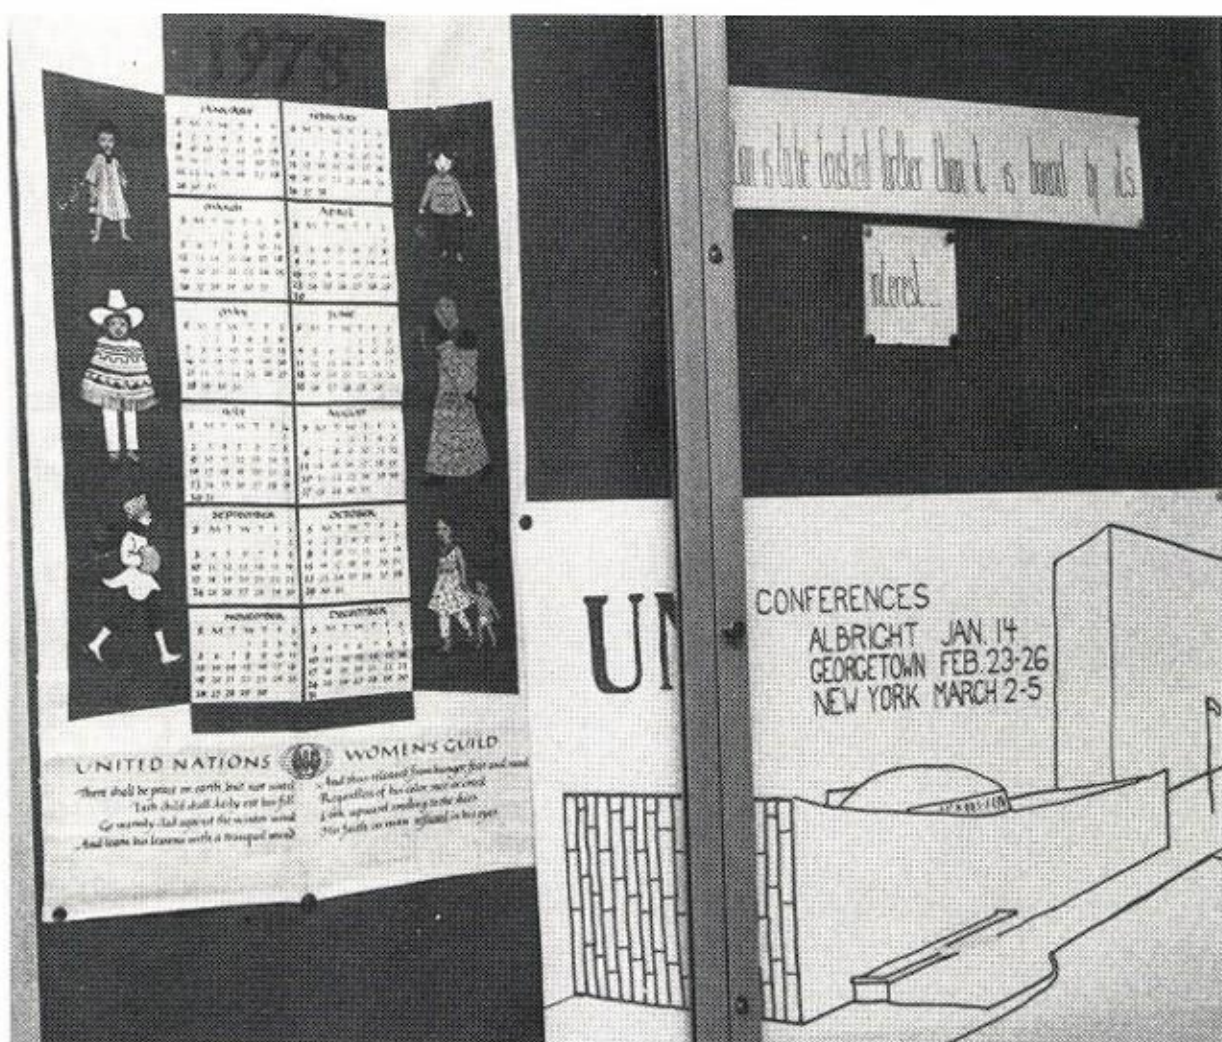

A major change took place in the Social Studies Department. "Problems of Democracy", a combination of sociology, economics, and government was made mandatory for all seniors. This was set up with hopes that graduating seniors will be more aware of problems that face the world today. In relation with this course, seniors also had the opportunity to attend juvenile court hearings.

A wide variety of mini-courses was offered so students could study what they found most interesting.

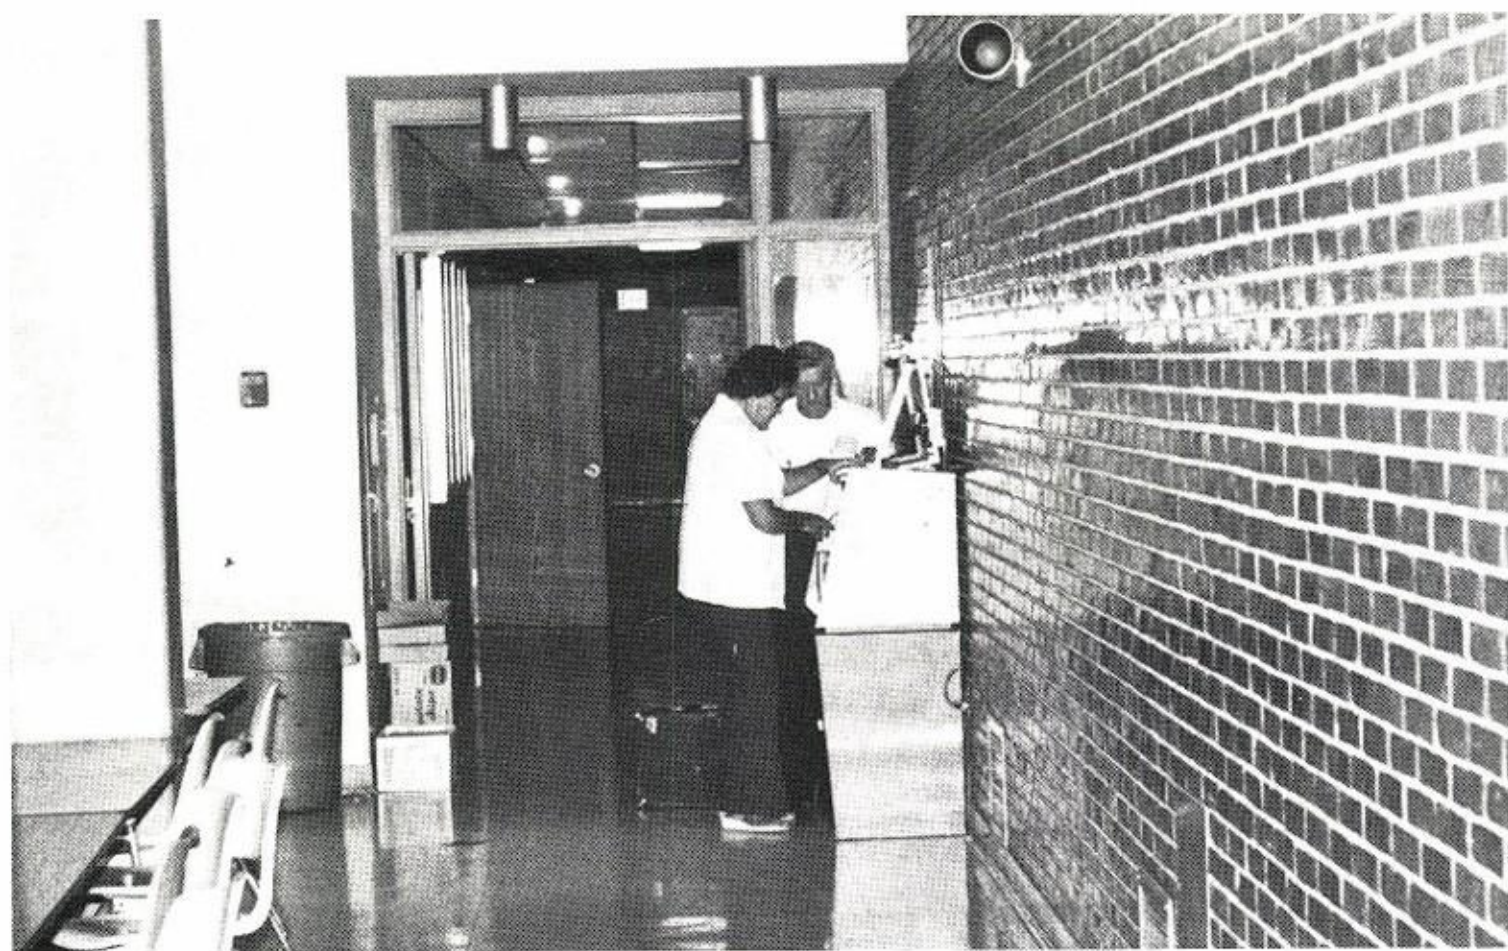

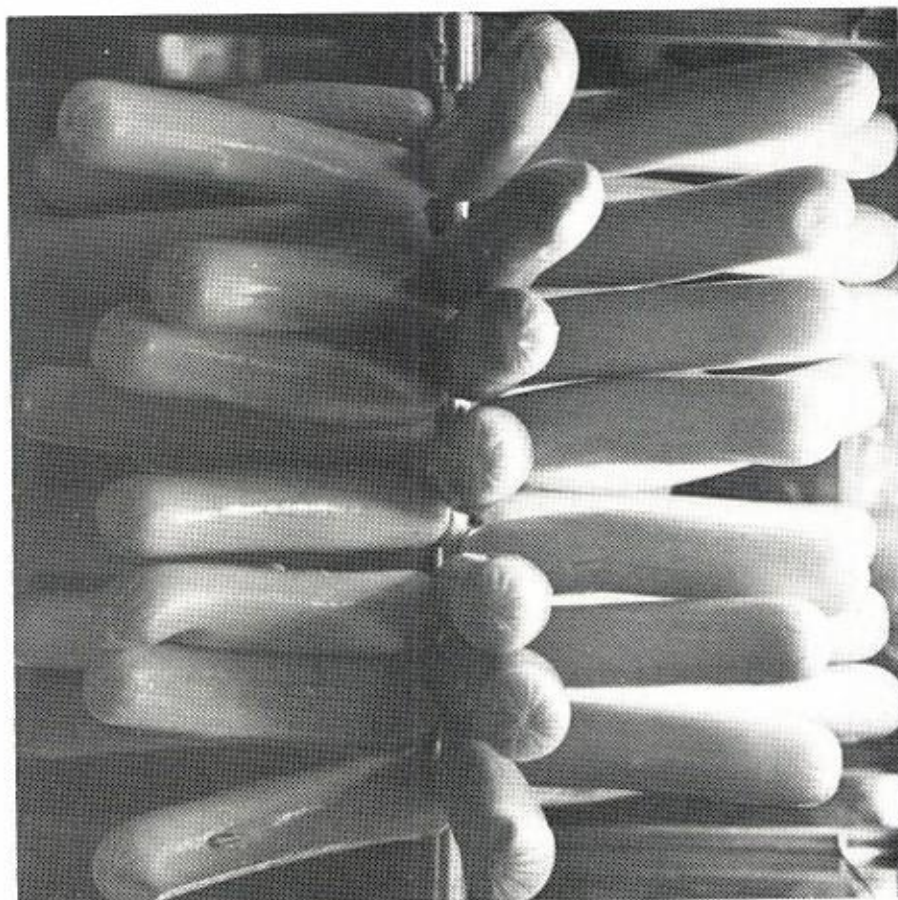

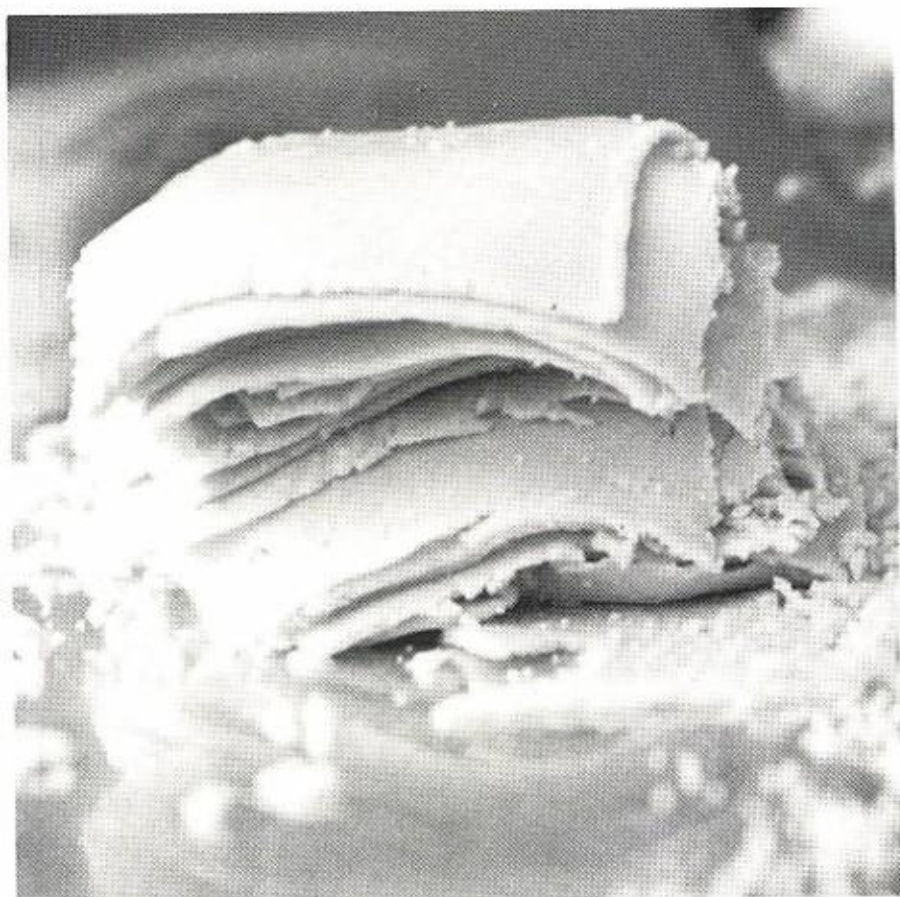

HUMAN HIGHWAY

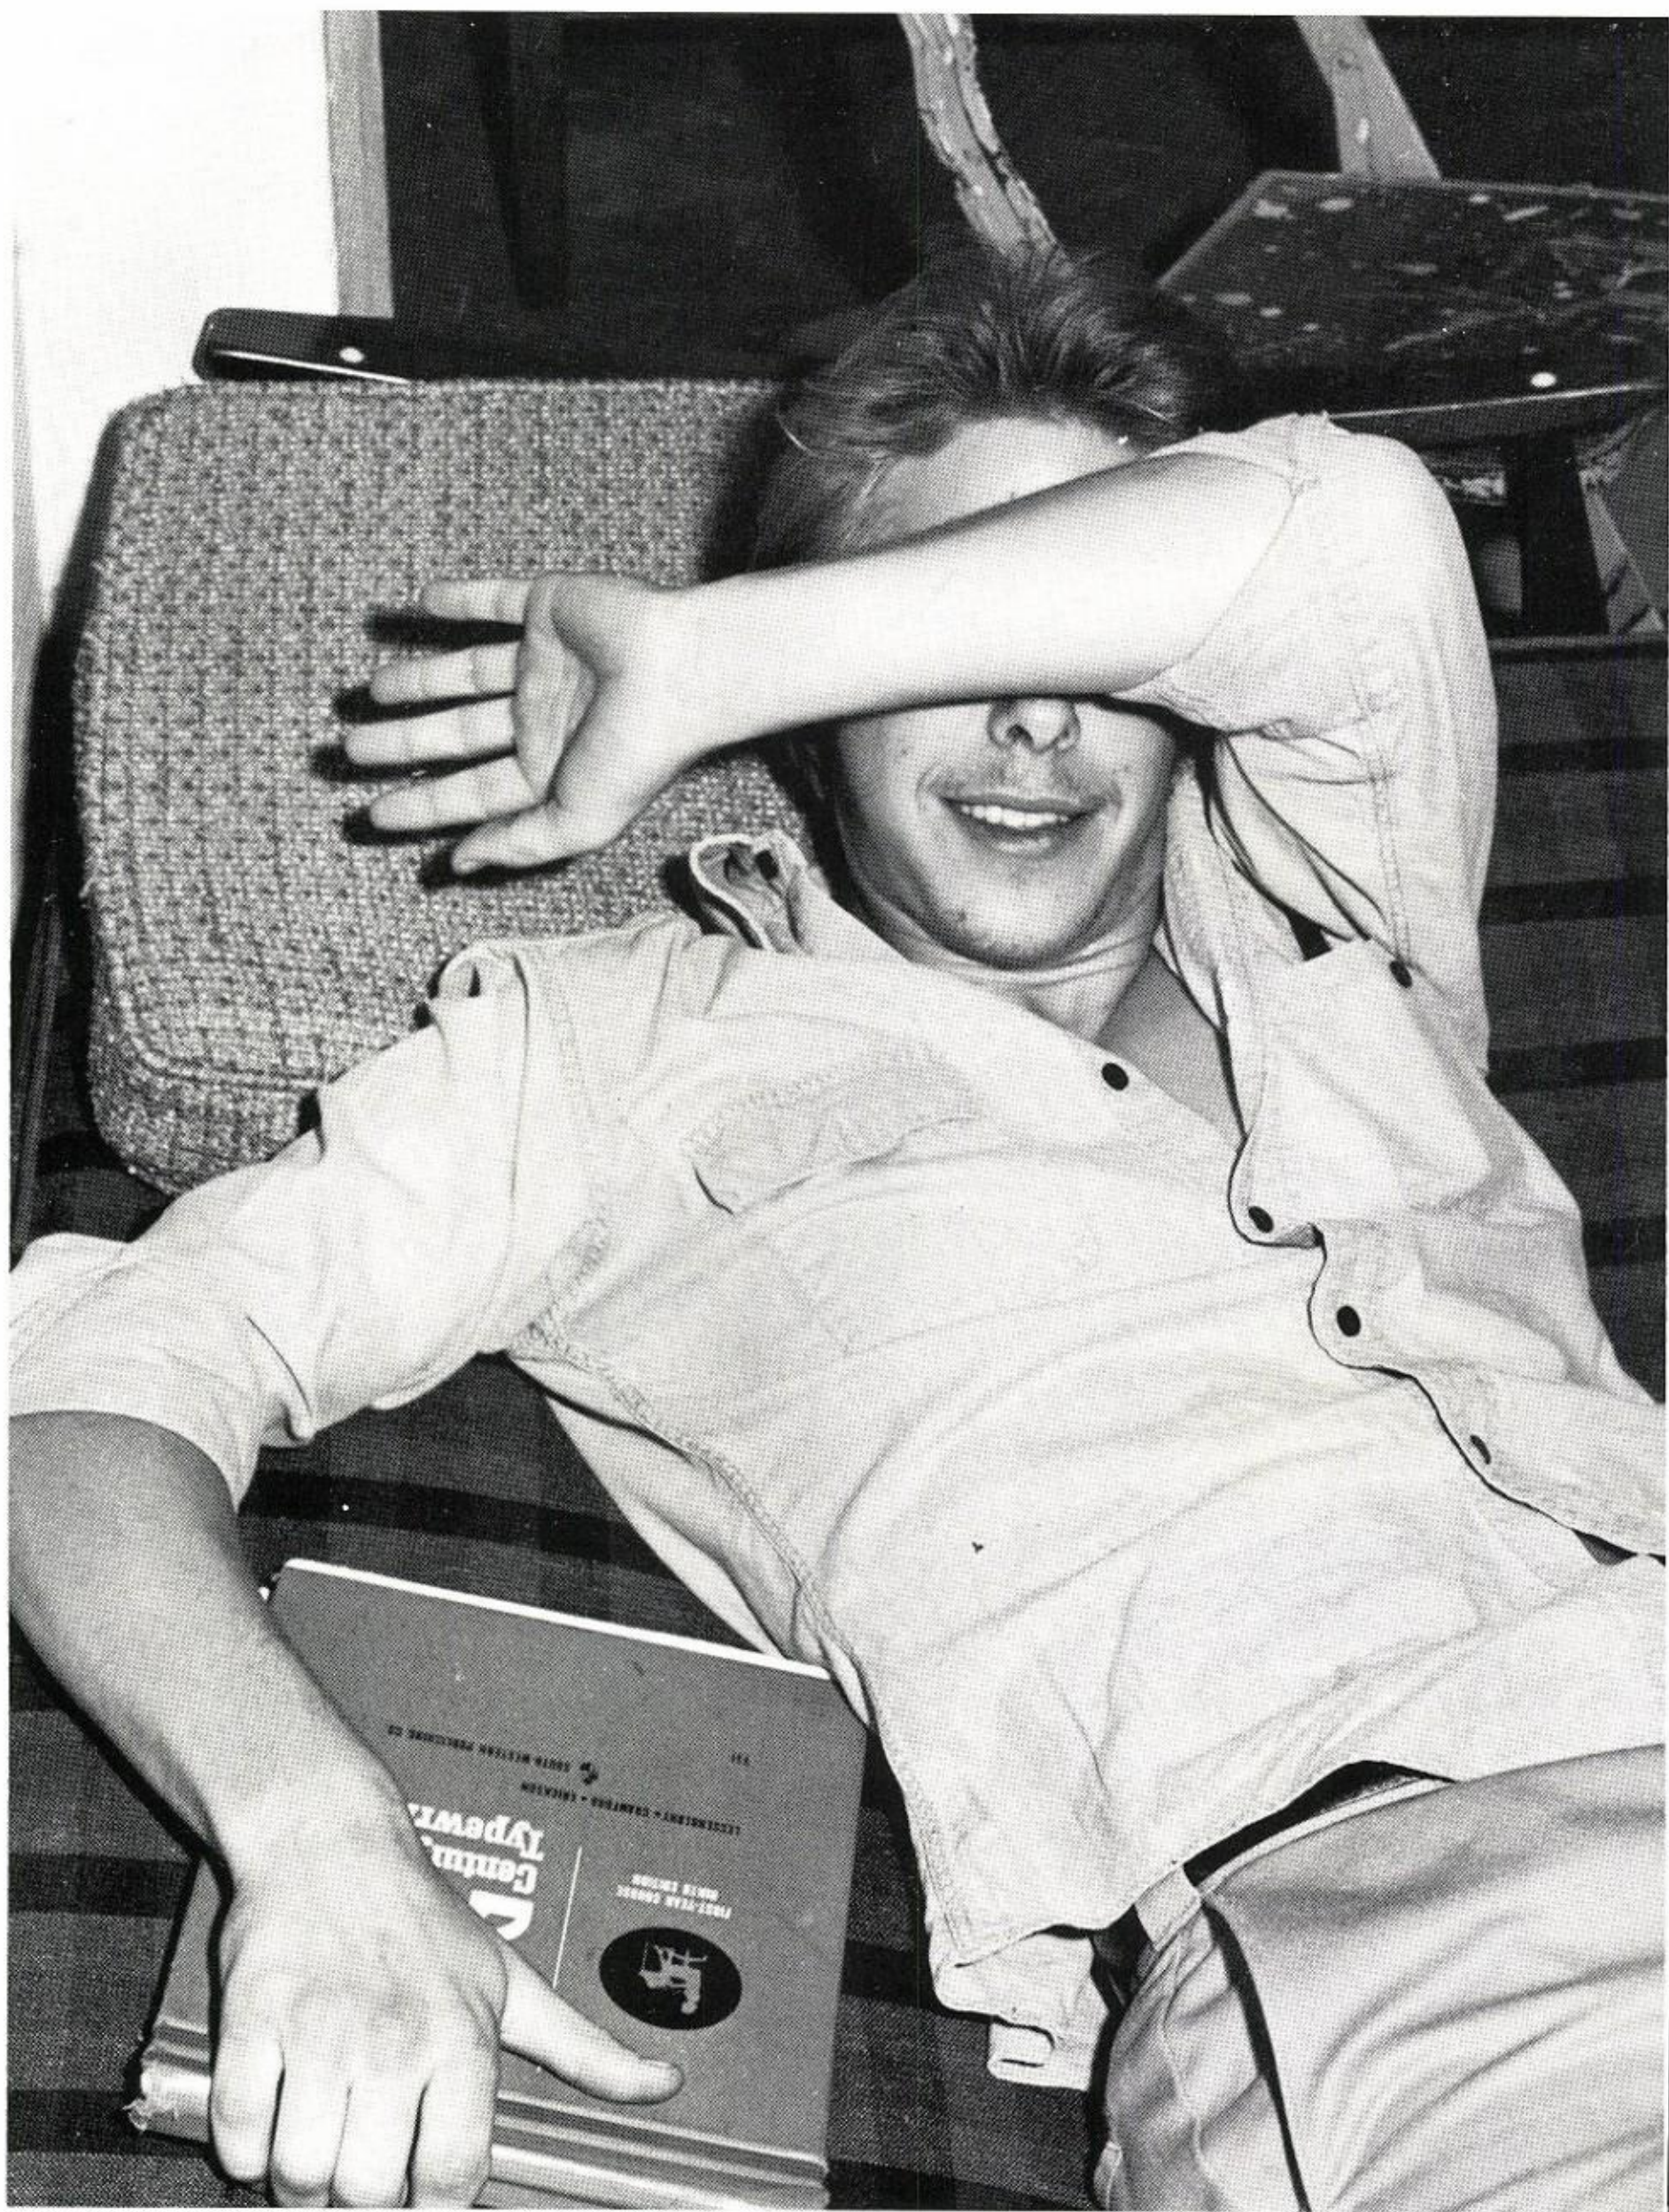

THE TIMES
THEY ARE A'CHANGIN

Another welcome addition to our school was the new cafeteria. Serving 2 entrees, soup, salad, vegetable, and dessert, it proved to be a useful (and inexpensive) convenience for both students and faculty.
